BOOK REVIEW

Book Review help the students for immersive learning outcomes incorporating Self learning and Group learning familiarizing with different perspectives and world visions offered by books as the source of knowledge.

A book review is a critical analysis and evaluation of a scholarly or literary work, assessing its content, arguments, and relevance to the course. It typically includes a summary, critique, and the reviewer's insights. The purpose of book review at college is to assess a work's quality, content, and relevance, helping students develop critical thinking and analytical skills. It aims to provide insights, inform potential readers, and contribute to academic discourse.

For literature students, book reviews offer insights into diverse literary styles, themes, and critical perspectives. They promote a deeper understanding of literary works, encourage critical analysis, and foster discussions that enrich their appreciation and knowledge of literature.
