Completion certificate of orientation programme attended by the faculty coordinator

Activity Report

A soft skill training programme was organized by Dr. Salini LR, Assistant Professor of English Department on 22 June 2022. She had received the online training of Industry Academic Collaboration Coordinator (IACC) from 6 th Dec 2021 to 11 March 2022, as a part the MoU signed between BOSCH and St. Joseph's college Moolamattom on 15-02-2022. She took a class on the importance of soft skill development, based on the study materials send by BOSCH as a part of the MOU signed with the college. A lot of students participated in the soft skill development class. The students exchanged their opinions on start ups and effective ways of using soft skills. In the class she also discussed about various innovative methods which can be used for soft skill developments. The session was informative and inspiring. The class gave a lot of insight to the nuanced methods of skill development. She also used power point presentations to take the class.

The major topics discussed in the seminar are

- 1) Building-up workforce of budding entrepreneurs
- 2) Awareness about innovative ways of thinking
- 3) Creation of skilled and trained workforce Focused training programs targeted to the development of skills at par with the best available in the world.

The programme concluded with the feedback from students. They were impressed by the class and added that it enriched their awareness about the importance of capacity building among the youth of India.
