2. ANTI-DOWRY AFFIDAVIT

Starting in 2021, St. Joseph's College, Moolamattom, took proactive measures to combat the rising crimes related to dowry. During the admission process, the College instituted a policy requiring every student and their parent to sign an anti-dowry affidavit. This initiative reflects the institution's commitment to creating a safe and equitable environment and sends a strong message against the dowry system, aiming to contribute to a society free from such harmful practices.

3. ANTI-DOWRY PLEDGE

On November 26, 2022, at 11 am, St. Joseph's College, Moolamattom, collaborated with 'The Women & Child Development Department', Kerala, in a noteworthy stand against the dowry system on Anti-Dowry Day. All students participated in a solemn pledge to combat this harmful tradition, emphasizing the importance of gender equality. This collective endeavour aims to drive positive societal change and eradicate the practice of dowry, ultimately contributing to a safer and more equitable future for all.
